

My desire is ravaging in me
I see purple mass, stardust light
Dancing in your eyes
What is the use? Where can I start?
When all of you find me crazy
'Cause I have a black heart

So what you know about being the best one?
I will never see
And what they said about me from time to time
Will never be true

Nevermore
Nevermore
Nevermore
Nevermore

My desire is ravaging in me
Like a warrior's blade, proud and fine
Let victory be mine
What if I choose to tear down the wall?
And take you in my arms, sweet sunbeam
Though I'm not perfect at all

So what you know about being the best one?
I will never see
And what they said about me from time to time
Will never be true

Nevermore
Nevermore
I am a maiden for you
Nevermore
I am a maiden (nevermore)
I am a maiden (nevermore)
I am a maiden
I am a maiden for you
Nevermore
Nevermore
