

Trial By Fire

Mob Rules

The dogs are on the hunt
They're searching for the guilty men
The mob is on the run
Go fighting for your rights

They hide and seek and change direction
Same story as the night before
The gallows see a mass attraction
A judgment in the devil's court

Don't say you're innocent
We call you a liar
You soiled the promised land
The time to die

There is no second chance
A trial by fire
Feel the almighty hand
Light up the sky

His troops are on the hunt
To punish all the unbeliever
The world is under guns
Protect your civil rights!

They try to kill and rape the poor men
Nobody got a reason why
The holy smell of witches burning
A judgment in the devil's court

Don't say you're innocent
We call you a liar
You soiled the promised land
The time to die

There is no second chance
A trial by fire
Feel the almighty hand
Light up the sky.
