

Soft

Moby

I know what's in me
I know what goes on in me
Know it's time to stop
I alone for ever

I feel it soft in my hands
So soft, so soft

And I can sit through the door
Watching mine
Watching the sign

I know it's soft, so soft
I know it's soft, so soft, rough
Can you ever lay

What's all the blindness
Watch someone bleed
I can't ever be found
I can never sleep

When your fucking nail
No when your fucking nail
I feel it, I feel it
(Soft)
Well, I feel it, I feel it

I don't know what I don't connect
But I scream for the blood I've found
I can't see but I'm never going to leave
Walking you to me

Love baby, love baby
Love make it ever soft
Love baby, love me soft
It burns, it's soft but it hurts
It's soft

Now I play in at night
Climb your sleep
For the rest of your
Feel it, I feel it
I feel it, I feel it

Well, I feel it
I feel it, I feel it, I feel it
Well, I feel it now
What sort of love

What sort of love
What sort of love
What sort of love

What sort of love
What sort of love
What sort of love
