

I Do It

Mod Sun

Wha'd up!

I do it for you, and you baby

I, I, I, I do it for you, and you baby aha

I, I, I, I do it for you, and you baby, oh yeah uhmm

I do it for you

Ok, before they even caught me rappin' man this, this what it kinda sounds like inside my head, so

Feel this for a minute, yeah ahah

I just like hearing that so, yeah

Ahh alright, let me bring it in now, I'm ready

Health, wealth... you know the rest.

Yeah, yeah

I took to participating speaking motivational

Shit and keeping my expression stays original

I'm from perception try to keep nothing subliminal

Provide a shelter when they feel they got no where to go

Couple things in front I like to let the others know

I speak for me freely, no muzzle

There's no such thing as greatness without a struggle

I'm talking real strength, not muscle

I'm talking bringing to the table what you offering,

What leaves you pondering and why should we be monitoring

Before you go to sleep I and you could successfully say that you were impacting the world in a good way

Just a series of tools to better your situation

Propel ya closer to the alignment of constellations

True ever lasting satisfaction when (post[?]) came to passion,

Location is the outcome of initial reaction

Ahaha, woo, yeah

Ok, let's bring it back now

I do it for you, and you baby, aha

I, I, I, I do it for you, and you baby aha

I, I, I, I do it for you, huh uh, and you baby,

Uh, uh, I do it for you

Yeah, and I do it for you

Yup, and you baby, I know it might sound crazy

Where everybody out for themselves

Lovin their haters

Me, I try to grind yeah lovin my neighbours

Ask me, how I do ya a favour?

Give me back up cuz when I on cable

You can make money yeah pay per view

And when I get cash I won't hate on you

I'll just slide through, and show some love

Fuck a little dollar I'll throw ya a dove

And if you wanna come we can smoke some bud

Cuz that's what we do when we show love

Me and mod sun, back in the studio

Doing 24 hours a day, back on, wait til we get that pay, eh

I wonder what rolling stones is gonna say

And when that day come, we gonn make it, we gonn make it

(and read the mail man this is true?)

Yeah we did it for you

I do it for you, and you baby
I, I, I, I do it for you, and ahah
I, I, I, I do it for you
