

Damage done

Moderat

Scratch the words with false inspiration
A thorn buried deep in my side
Spilled lips cracked and parted
Pearly teeth cleft in half

I see the damage
I've done
Rip the tongue from my hide
I see the damage
I've done
Rip the tongue from my hide

I go out and stare
At the sunlight
Until the tears stain my eyes
Finding answers of questions unwanted
Scoures the pain from my mind

Now I see the damage
I've done
Rip the tongue from my hide
Now I see the damage
I've done
Rip the tongue from my hide

Now I see the damage
I've done
Rip the tongue from my hide
Now I see the damage
I've done
Rip the tongue from my hide
