

Feeds On The Darkside

Modern Day Escape

It's Friday night
Let's hit the town
And have some fun
Roll a bottle deep
Look to play for keeps
But I'm not the only one
Half dressed to kill
Looking for a thrill
Working with that devil in her eyes
Crawling for that cash
Better shake that ass
Oh baby

She'll be your everything
If you're willing to pay her enough
She rides the white lines selling her love
Feeds on the darkside, she's daddy's little slut

She's just a dancer at the bar
Wasn't supposed to fall in love so hard
She says "Baby, don't even try and keep up with me"
If you want a dance
Better show her the cash
So she'll keep shaking that sweet thing
That baby girl
She'll rock your world
And show you exactly where she's been

She'll be your everything
If you're willing to pay her enough
She rides the white lines selling her love
Feeds on the darkside, she's daddy's little slut

Shake, shake, shake
Baby sweet thing
Shake, shake, shake
Make that ass swing
Shake, shake, shake
Make that ass swing
Shake, shake, shake
Make that ass swing
Shake, shake, shake
Shake, shake, shake

She'll be your everything
(She'll be your everything)
If you're willing to pay her enough
Cause I've got the cash
(She'll be your everything)
And she's got the flash
So come over here and give daddy a dance
(Give daddy a dance)

Hey girl, you're looking fine tonight
Why don't you bring me a drink?
Yeah Vegas, make it a whiskey and coke!
Honey shake that thing
