

Nothing's Ever Fine

Modern Day Zero

Something about the way
You don't seem to smile anymore
Something about your face
Telling me you wanted more

Nothing's ever fine
Something's always troubling your mind
Nothing's ever fine
What'll it take to make things right

Stuck inside this place
It just doesn't feel like home
Can't forget the day
That you chose to be alone

Something about the way
You don't seem to smile anymore
