

I Need You Now

Modern Talking

Why did you go
Why did you run away
Is there something I can do
I'm standing here
Oh I don't know what to say
Feeling helpless without you

I don't care what you said and what you've done
For me you're still the one

I need you now
It's the only thing that you should know
Here's my declaration
I need you now
Searching for you wherever you go
Looking for salvation
I need you now

I hear your voice
When I'm so alone at night
Want to hold you in my arms

I see your eyes
Shining so warm and bright
Wanna fall into your charms

I don't care what you said and what you've done
For me you're still the one
Refrain I need you now
It's the only thing that you should know
here's my declaration
I need you now
Searching for you wherever you go
Looking for salvation
I need you now

Oh I need you here and now
Need to get to you somehow
Tell the world that I will show my love to you
