

You're Not Lisa

Modern Talking

You remind me can't you see
Of a girl just memories
A flickering of your eyes tonight
I see her in the light
Something happened on the way
To heaven, but I just can't say
Oh why she had to go away
Baby come what may

You're not Lisa, oh I know
She's in heaven, had to go
You're not Lisa, that's no lie
I will see her, in paradise

If there's a god somewhere
Oh do you think it's really fair, oh she was only 23
Give her back to me
How could I forget the time
We were together, she was mine
Oh anytime and anywhere
I wish she could be there
