

Buttons to Push the Buttons

Modest Mouse

Piglet has whiskers but know it could laugh right off the desk
Laptop computers know it was the fodder
That got them jobs
Featherweight fathers know nothing 'bout daughters
And sons be damned
The rest of the buttons are pushing themselves to an early grave
Partial schemes pleasure schemes business schemes pleasure swells
We all got jobs
Like our opinions and millions of readers and
They pass we fall
You'll have a hard time
When you deal with folks like managers
Everybody wang chung tonight
And I'm given to thoughts of happiness
Do si do to the head of the class
And I'm given to thoughts of happiness
