Won't decide your place tonight,
It's not where I should be.
Be precise to circumstances,
Lead me safe to sleep.
Sleep at times it can decide
If I should stay or leave.
Realize it's not the time, try to get to–

Then reality
Catches up with me
There's no remedy
For what I need
To be...oooooooh

Take the time it takes to find
A way to make me feel alive.
It helps sometimes
But it will never really matter coming from me.
Besides, I'm wasting time away

Then reality
Catches up with me
There's no remedy
For what I need
To be...oooooooh
