

Gravity

Modwheelmood

This is not a song, It's a call for mental sanity
I hope that you won't hear it again
It's just that I'm alone and I'm falling down
Gravity... gravity look at me.
What did I do wrong? Am I losing all stabilities?
Whatever it takes I'll set you free
I keep on changing mind, castaway from society
Society? Gravity.

It's just another day spent thinking 'bout yesterday
And I don't know
It's just another day that I spend alone
just another day spent thinking 'bout yesterday
And I don't know
It's just another day, just another pray
Just another...

What is going on? Am I losing all stabilities
Whatever it takes I'll set you free
I keep on changing mind, castaway from society
Society? Gravity.

It's just another day spent thinking 'bout yesterday
And I don't know
It's just another day that I spend alone
just another day spent thinking 'bout yesterday
And I don't know
It's just another day, just another pray
Just another...

Gravity look at me
Can't you see what I want to be?
Gravity look at me

Moving on Right or wrong
Even if it doesn't really work for me
It's just another day that I spend alone
Gravity, can't you be just like me
Eventually leave me alone
It's just another day, just another pray
Just another...

Hello... I'm you... just a quick reminder...
I'm blue
