

I drew all my conclusions
I've crossed the bridge that no one dares to cross
Got rid of all illusions once again

Everyone is welcome to the circus
Where no one knows what's really going on
Take a ride, enjoy and focus, focus, focus.

It's not beautiful
Quite unpredictable
I'm changing
I'm changing
It's impossible
I need a miracle
I'm changing
You're changing now.

Every time a new decision
Little things that keep me from moving on
In the time of indecision make me stronger, stronger

It's not beautiful
Quite unpredictable
I'm changing
I'm changing
It's impossible
I need a miracle
I'm changing
You're changing now
