I drew all my conclusions I've crossed the bridge that no one dares to cross Got rid of all illusions once again Everyone is welcome to the circus Where no one knows what's really going on Take a ride, enjoy and focus, focus, focus. It's not beautiful Quite unpredictable I'm changing I'm changing It's impossible I need a miracle I'm changing You're changing now. Every time a new decision Little things that keep me from moving on In the time of indecision make me stronger, stronger It's not beautiful Quite unpredictable I'm changing I'm changing It's impossible I need a miracle I'm changing You're changing now
