

Madrid - Changes

Modwheelmood

look at me
i'm turning into tragedy can't believe it's happening i'm not alive but i'm breathing every day i'm in a cage every thing is going through the changes the changes

promises
the reason to this argument i'm able to deny the fact no one comes to this extent to look for something better than the one before every one is scared of all the changes

relax
there's always someone else who finds the time it takes to find another way
you learn to crawl
better days are here to stay every one is counting on the changes

regrets
it's always someone else
to learn to crawl

the changes
