

Cheaters Never Win

Moe Bandy

I don't know how long you left me here alone
But I sure was a lonesome someone
And I learned from a friend how cheaters never win
Oh, but we sure have more fun.

When empty arms need someone soft to fill them
They'll start reaching out for almost anyone
My stood to couldn't stand and cheaters never win
Oh, but we sure have more fun.

Watching that TV and watching it watch me
I knew my mind was coming undone
I know that it's a sin and cheaters never win
Oh, but we sure have more fun.

When empty arms need someone soft to fill them
They'll start reaching out for almost anyone
My stood to couldn't stand and cheaters never win
Oh, but we sure have more fun.

Oh, but we sure have more fun...
