

I Sure Don't Need That Memory Tonight

Moe Bandy

I need a great big bottle of VO's to go
I need two long loving arms to roll up in
Some fool just played your song on the jukebox
And that same ole hurt is hurtin' me again.

I need to go on home with my bottle and watch TV
If I hang around here I'm bound to make a fool of me
There's a girl who looks like you holdin' some fool tight
No I sure don't need that memory tonight.

I sure don't need that memory tonight
Blues and booze don't mix and I'll get high as a kite.

I gotta a glass full of beer and a heart full of misery
One or the other always gets the best of me
If I stay five minutes more I'll stay all night
And I sure don't need that memory tonight.

No, I sure don't need that memory tonight...
