

Someone That I Can Forget

Moe Bandy

I come here tonight to discover a lover that I'd never known Someone to talk to and smile at and laugh with 'till I take her home

I come here to find me a stranger somebody that I never met Someone to love me then leave me alone but someone that I can f orget

You might say it's not unexpected neglected after being your ma n
You'd left too many mem'ries to live with and I'm forgetting th e best way I can

I come here to find me a stranger
Yes I need someone that I can forget
