

Thank Goodness It's Friday

Moe Bandy

Well, it's Friday afternoon and the sun's goin' down
Let's punch up a beer drinkin' song
This ole a honky tonk is where I'm gonna be
I'll be a roarin' here all night long.

Well, I've been paid for hard week's work
Now I'm ready to blow off some steam
Thank goodness it's Friday but we'd be dead
If it came more than once a week.

I got my pickup full of gas and a cooler full of beer
And a half pint under the seat
Got my levi jacket and my best blue jeans
And a darlin' snuggled up to me.

Some think it's wrong to boogie woogie all night long
But I know that's how tonight's gonna be
Thank goodness it's Friday but we'd be dead
If it came more than once a week

Yeah, the sun's goin' down and the moon's comin' out
It's gonna be a hell raisin' night
There'll be some dancin' and singin' and lovin' and drinkin'
At least one real good fight.

This honky tonk sure ain't a fancy place
But stick around there'll be a plenty to see
Thank goodness it's Friday but we'd be dead
If it came more than once a week.

I got my pickup full of gas and a cooler full of beer
And a half pint under the seat
Got my levi jacket and my best blue jeans
And a darlin' snuggled up to me.

Thank goodness it's Friday but we'd be dead
If it came more than once a week...
