

Grow Old With You

Mohombi

Your mind, might wanna know it
Thats right, youll never be lonely
Dont know how but girl, you complete me
Yeah, thats right, Im free when you hold me

Aint no mountain high, aint no river wide
Enough to keep us apart
Cant describe what this love is like
But baby, this much I know

I wanna show the world what love can do
I wanna grow old with you
I wanna wake up and feel brand new
I wanna grow old with you

Right by your side I feel alive
Ill bring you up whenever youre down
I wanna show the world what love can do
I wanna grow old with you

Hey yo, get ready to take off
Lets go where most people gave up
I know what heaven is made off
Lets go, I dont wanna wake up

Aint no mountain high, aint no river wide
Enough to keep us apart
Cant describe what this love is like
But baby, this much I know

I wanna show the world what love can do
I wanna grow old with you
I wanna wake up and feel brand new
I wanna grow old with you

Right by your side I feel alive
Ill bring you up whenever youre down
I wanna show the world what love can do
I wanna grow old with you

I wanna grow in love, look at the view
Of all the mountains that we moved like we said we would do
Cause all my life Ive been dreaming, closing my eyes
Open them, open them but love, love will be the surprise
Sure, baby, youre the cure and the cause
And I put on a show every time to get an applause
Just remember were not everybody
We fuck it up then get it right, meet me in the lobby
Oreos and avenues, only blues and this Maserati racing through my Harlem
Baby, you got me, dont let me stop, show the world what we can do
Lovers in the parking lot looking for a room

I wanna show the world what love can do
I wanna grow old with you
I wanna wake up and feel brand new
I wanna grow old with you

Right by your side I feel alive
Ill bring you up whenever youre down
I wanna show the world what love can do
I wanna grow old with you
