

Kill For You

Moist

I want I want I wanted to...
You came to grind me into stone
Polishing the angled flesh and bone
The smallest cut to drain my soul
Precious words of comfort swallowed whole
Oh no she said I tried for love
And I died for love
But I'd kill for you
I want I want I wanted to...
You tore the makeup from my face
With every acid word you ever knew
Now every line and crack exposed
Exploited fully till each scar shone through
Oh no she said I tried for love
And I died for love
But I'd kill for you
I want I want I wanted to...
I never said I'd promise anything
That's alright I know you wanted to
I never meant to promise anything
That's alright I know you wanted to
I never ever promised anything
That's alright I know you wanted to be with me...
Came to grind me into stone
Polishing the angled flesh and bone
The smallest cut to drain my soul
Precious words of comfort swallowed whole
Strip me from the top down
Rip me from the raw into is higher place
Don't want to die
