

Terrible End

Moke

We're trying to hold
Trying to hold on tight
We're chancing our arm
Just to see if it comes out right

Is this the end
The terrible end
Is this the end
Of everything so right

We rode through the snow
We shivered and held on tight
We freaked at the thought
Of not ever sharing a life

Is this the end
The terrible end
Is this the end
Of everything so right

Highrise
On a freeway
Slipping away, slipping away, slipping away
We got no time for backtalk
Cause I've been down in a hole
Down in this hole, down in this hole

Is this the end
The terrible end
Oh tell me, is this the end
Such a terrible end
Oh, is this the end
Such a terrible end
Is this the end
Of everything so right
