

The Song That You Sing

Moke

Bring me that song you sing
Bring it to me loud, loud and clear
Sing me that song you sing
Sing it to me make me hear

I've been swimming in an ocean wide
In the years of tears that I cried
The faster that I learned to swim
The more it seemed to pull me in.

Ask me to dance again,
The way you asked me way back then
And I'll dance with you again
And this time it'll never end
Put on that dress you wore
The night you left me wanting more
And I'll look up some 45's
The ones that made us feel, feel alive.

Don't you remember you were at my side
We heard a shot and that young boy died
They said they'd found him with a gun
So that proves he must 've been the one.

When my time comes, my final hour
I'm sure I'll be sitting in the same old bar
In my life I've kept an open mind and what's done is done, lets leave the past behind.

So Bring me that song you sing
Bring it to me loud, loud and clear
Sing me that song you sing...
Cause when the feelings strong
Then you can't go wrong
No matter what we try
It's always do or die...
