Boo

Do not fear me I bring no harm

No one knows where I came from I walk on water all day long No one knows how far I came No one even knows my name

I sometimes sing as I float No one ever hears a note I sometimes move from place to place No one ever sees my face I can't touch, I can't weep, I can't taste, I can't sleep I appear, I disappear, I reappear, I'm getting near

I'm tired of living in my brain I feel no joy, I feel no pain I don't live, I just exist I need to know the life I missed I'm the only one host I'm this town I'm the only ghost in the lost and found I'm the only one if you look around Reappear I'm getting near
