

Kokoro Hirai cannot write today
She's in hospital, reason is too much chocolate
We are her relatives Taeko and Kazuko
We're writing to see if you can make her stop it

Kokoro Hirai keeps chocolates in her room
Chocolates in her bag, chocolates in her pocket
She eats them every time, everywhere
Five to six packages a day

She also loves toys
She also loves teas
Her motto is 'Nonbiri bonyari'
(It mean 'easy and idly')
But mostly Kokoro Hirai loves chocolates
That's why she lies in hospital today

Her behaviour is making us uneasy
Sometimes she makes us feel bad
She seems to be happy eating her chocolates
But we think they're driving her mad

If we shop with her in a convenience store
We will witness a surprise scene, maybe
She will buy a shop basket full up with chocolate
Milk, bitter, white or strawberry

She don't mind the colour
She don't care the price
If it's chocolate, to her must be nice
Especially in winter there are many kinds of chocolate
In store
So winter for her is a paradise
She also loves toys
She also loves teas
Her motto: 'Nonbiri bonyari'
(It mean 'easy and idly')
But mostly Kokoro Hirai loves chocolates
Which is why she lies in hospital today

Her behaviour is making us uneasy
Sometimes she makes us feel bad
We have issued her a warning about too much chocolate
Once
But she never paid attention to our words

She also loves toys
She also loves teas
Her motto: 'Nonbiri bonyari'
('Live easy and idly')
But mostly Kokoro Hirai loves chocolates
Which is why she lies in hospital today
