Monarchy

Everybody knows you're the summer sails
If we're together then, why am I lunar pale?
Lost my breath in you, fell out with all my friends
Should have realised we started at the end

Call baby call
Don't lead me on
Call baby call
Don't lead me on
Call baby call
Don't lead me on
Love on the run
Don't leave me hanging on

Got the warning sings, can't look me in the face
Make me forget myself, left behind my grace
Said you were dead to me, be better on my own
So why am I sitting here, just staring at the phone

Call baby call
Don't lead me on
Call baby call
Don't lead me on
Call baby call
Don't lead me on
Love on the run
Don't leave me hanging on
