

Start Angry... End Mad

Moneen

Screw you and die I hope you burn.
You think you're worth more than you earned.
You're nothing, you're worthless, except for these verses.
Out with the new in with the old.
Die
Honesty makes you do the strangest things like act angry.
It's your life, your move, your chance to make good of the bad.

Can't hide the fact that you still lied to us, you lied to them
Put the past behind, make it good there's one more thing to say
Say it...
Two years is a long time to pretend.
Now we start again.
We've got to stay until the end.
We've got to say it.
Don't act suprised when we say it.
