

What Did You Say... I'm Sorry, My Eyes Are On Fire

Moneen

This afternoon I burned my eyes out of my head, but from what I read I'm fine... Or dead
Now I understand just what was said.. I never did.
Last night I died. Songs droned in fives,
And in awkward times it creeps down my spine.
Now I understand just what was meant when it was said that I wa s dead.
And she sang these things only to me.
The only one who understands what she means and dreams.
We're completely streamed at the seams, she looks through me an d begins to speak...
What did you say?
