

Gotta Move On

Monica

Holla, new monica shit. yes. oh baby. yep

I been feeling something
U been treating me cold
U no longer want to touch me
The love has turned cold
And i don't feel special
The feeling i need to feel
In my gut i'm feeling something...
Another woman, keep it real

I, i had to go move on (had to go move on) Cause you're not worthy of my love and all we did was fight and fuss (fight and fuss)
And she would, she would call your phone
And you would act like i was wrong for cursing you all night long

Now to you if zip means nada
So don't call don't page don't follow
And you can see me in the club, don't holla
And if you see me looking good don't bother
I know you hate to see me with my baby father
On the level as me, dun dada
Your loss, but you gon have to swallow
I do bad by myself
Stop proper..stop proper

Now the last few months been different
Cause you don't seem bad with time
U say you wanna stay with me
Did u go and change your mind
U getting phone calls after midnight
It's not acceptable
It don't take a scientist for me to know
Another chick is on the low

I, (i, i) i had to go move on (gotta move on)
Cause you're not worthy (not worthy, not worthy) of my love and all we did w as fight and fuss
And she would, (she would) she would call your phone
(she would call your phone)
And you would act like i was wrong for cursing you all night long

You're..so unfair (so unfair)
If you cared (if you cared)
You wouldn't play games like this
With me..so unfair (so unfair)
If you cared (if you cared)
(you wouldn't doooo ohhh)

I, i had to go move on (gotta move gotta move on)
Cause you're not worthy of my love and all we did was fight and fuss
(you're not you're not you're not no no)
And she would, (she would) she would call your phone
(call your phone..baby)
And you would act like i was wrong for cursing you all night long

I can't stand for you to lie
(2006)
She is in your eyes
(new monica baby)
Oh.
(this is serious man)...oh
