

Avalon

Mono Inc.

Room for my horror
Place for my hate
Brains for discovery
Times to be late
Shields for the madness
Pills for my pain
And fire for my love

Ears for my poems
Eyes for my wounds
Lungs for my body
Food for the muse
Rain in my desert
Help to be real
And fire for my love

Don't you dare to say
You'll never get there

On my way to avalon
One more way to avalon
I beg for relief
I leave to remind you
Of all those dimensions you loose
I pray there for you
I pray there for you

Land for the drowning
Sense to my life
Truth for the rumors
Left to go right
Wax for the candles
Lights in the dark
And fire for my love

Ears for my poems
Eyes for my wounds
Lungs for my body
Food for the muse
Rain in my desert
Help to be real
And fire for my love

Don't you dare to say
You'll never get there

On my way to avalon
One more way to avalon
I beg for relief
I leave to remind you
Of all those dimensions you loose
I pray there for you
I pray there for you

So I beg for relief
I leave to remind you
So I beg for relief

I should have denied you
Oh I beg for relief
I leave to remind you
Of all those dimensions you loose
I pray there for you
I pray there for you
