

Get Some Sleep

Mono Inc.

What would you do if I said I love you
Who would you trust if I told you lies
What would you do if I'd turn the tables
And where would you run if you're running out of time
You're running out of time

How would you feel if I said I hate you
What would you dream if you'd get some sleep
Who would you blame if the world would listen
Tell me what would you change if a change was all you
Need

A change was all you need

What would you ask if I had the answers
What would you paint if it all turned grey
What would you think if your mind was open
Tell me where would you end if it'd end today?

How would you feel if I said I hate you?
And what would you dream if you get some sleep?
How would you feel if I said I hate you?
And what would you dream if you'd get some sleep?
