

My Deal With God

Mono Inc.

Some say it's just the way I look at night some say it's just the way I dance some say they'll pray for my deliverance well I don't expect surprises now but I'm gonna take the chance just go on

Tell me what it's like
I can't hear the angels sing
I can't hear the angels sing
the book of love
just prove me that you're right and I'll be man enough to make I'll be man enough to make
my deal with god

Some say it's cause I've heard the devil talk some say it's cause I'm dressed in black some say they call on my intelligence well I'm sorry for you ignorant but I've been to hell and back
just go on

Tell me what it's like
I can't hear the angels sing
I can't hear the angels sing
the book of love
just prove me that you're right
and I'll be man enough to make
my deal with god

Some say it must have been my Mama's fault some say I'm just an errant lamb some simply can't see true magnificence so now let me teach you something saint this is just the way I am so go on
