

Never Say Die

Mono Inc.

Forty-four places in forty-five days ten thousand miles to go no time to break no time to rest senses on overload
too many diehards on too many sides bigotry's our disease folks die of hunger and beg for a drink as you wait here patiently

Hear what I say
hear what I cry
down on your knees
oh never say die
stand up today
far far away
a change is in sight
for you and for me

Colorful dresses in white dinky parks
the surface looks nice and clear homicide murder despite and deceit the present is reigned by fear desperate creatures where once was a land the soils are sour an dry mountains of weapons kill armies of hate resist in the nick of time

Hear what I say
hear what I cry
down on your knees
oh never say die
stand up today
far far away
a change is in sight
for you and for me

No more correct
no more polite
it's never too late
wake up and unite
stand up today
far far away
a change is in sight
for you and for me

For you and for me

Colorful dresses in white dinky parks
the surface looks nice and clear

Hear what I say
hear what I cry
down on your knees
oh never say die
stand up today
far far away
a change is in sight

for you and for me

No more correct
no more polite
it's never too late
wake up and unite
stand up today
far far away
a change is in sight
for you and for me

Never say die