

Pain Machine

Mono Inc.

I'm wearing your dress
I walk in your shoes
I'm humming your favourites
I'm making your moves

I'm breathing your grace
I handle with care
I talked to your neighbour
I said you ain't there

Well, I'm here to shed your blood
I'm here to rip your heart in two
Well, I came to hear you scream
I came to make my peace with you
Just die
painmachine

I'm living your lie
I'm eating your meal
I sign with our lipstick
Your part of the deal

I call the police
I'm closing your eyes
I'm washing your hands clean and switch off your light

Well, I'm here to shed your blood
I'm here to rip your heart in two
Well, I came to hear you scream
I came to make my peace with you
Just die
