

Pain

Mono Inc.

I am begging for protection
I am praying but I find no quarter here
I'm not ready yet I'm confused and so unhappy
And I'm lonesome though you said I wouldn't my dear
Time for reflection
Take a gloomy view of life
Time for perfection
And you talk things to death
but you speak without saying why
Pain In my bond of love
Pain Is what you're dreaming of
Pain but you're never satisfied
All you want is pain
Beloved enemy
Pain to a high degree
Pain Is that all you give tonight
I am crying for good reasons
I am listening but I only hear a tirade
It's not over yet so it still demands an answer
I'll be burning because your fiend is here to stay
Time for reflection
Take a gloomy view of life
Time for perfection
And you talk things to death
but you speak without saying why
Pain In my bond of love
Pain is what you're dreaming of
Pain but you're never satisfied
All you want is Pain
Beloved enemy
Pain to a high degree
Pain is all that you give tonight
All you want is
All you give is
All I feel is Pain
