

Planet Shame

Mono Inc.

Don't tell me what it means to bet the madman
Don't tell me how it feels to be so hurt
Don't tell me what it takes to lead an empire (as I know)
And I'll keep for me how life looks with your face down in the dirt
On planet shame

Don't tell me how it feels to be forgiven
Don't tell me what it means to be so blessed
Don't tell me how I'll die and get to heaven (as I won't)
And I'll keep for me how love feels once you had it with the best
On planet shame
No more tears will blur the sun
