

Revenge

Mono Inc.

For all the little degradations and all the dirty words you said for all the white lies that helped you and everything you don't regret for being so extremely righteous and feeling outstanding smart for flying now the flags of glory but being dead cold at heart
I got heaps of time... one day the revenge is mine

For being so great and gracious and preaching against 666 for touching all those untapped bodies and reaching in your bag of tricks for being so extremely careful when seeding on virgin ground for being our guide and herdsman 'cause here we lie safe and sound
I got heaps of time... one day the revenge is mine
