

I Surrender

Monrose

I never thought I have to break this wall around my life there's nothing I'd give up, nothing there to fight

But I never had to face this kind of bad around before you brought me to my knees tonight
So now I gotta choose, to walk right up to you I'll let you walk away, forever

I surrender, I surrender cause I don't wanna lose you

I never had the time to care the light to the time there's nothing I'd give up, for anybody else

And love is with a broken heart was sent to of fools but I'm the one to fool myself

I know you make my seem, the one I gotta be I'll let you walk away, forever

I surrender, I surrender cause I don't wanna lose you i surrender, I surrender cause I can't let you walk away

I thought I was strong, I thought I had it down

But ohh, I was wrong and I know I gotta change

Really let you in, really give it all or nothing

Or nothiing

I don't wanna lose you

I surrender, fooled myself cause I don't wanna lose you I fooled myself, I surrender

I surrender
