

Love Must Carry On

Monrose

Once when I first met you
Twice tried to forget you
Why can't I just get you off my mind
Love your complicated, got me so frustrated
I won't let you pass me by
You have a certain way to make me glow
Can't let you go
In ways these words of mine will never know no, I'm so mad about you
Gonna let these feelings flow

I have cried all my tears
I have lost all my fears
My heart maybe wrong
This love must carry on
I have cried all my tears
I have lost all my fears
My vision's still strong
This love must carry on

These dreams can't be a waste of time
I long to make you mine
I need you, baby
Could this love be everlasting
Sorry for still asking
I can't help it no matter how hard I try
You have a certain way to make me glow
Can't let you go
In ways these words of mine will never know no, I'm so mad about you
Gonna let these feelings flow

I have cried all my tears
I have lost all my fears
My heart maybe wrong
This love must carry on
I have cried all my tears
I have lost all my fears
My vision's still strong
This love must carry on

I have cried all my tears
I have lost all my fears
My heart maybe wrong
This love must carry on
I have cried all my tears
I have lost all my fears
My vision's still strong
This love must carry on

Once when I first met you
Twice tried to forget you
