

Scream

Monrose

Underneath the setting sun
something wicced will one way come

Oh my
Just a dream
So to take you, shake you, make you scream

Try to see behind my eyes
Being me, you're hypnotized
Such a moment (rare) you shouldn't waste
Very soon I'll have a taste

Should I let you awake?
I can't resist
There's a run for a saking

You scream!
There's nobody to heal
Does it matter?
It's only you and me and all underneath
So scream!
Hell is waitin' for me
You're just shakter
Until you'r really afraid

Run and hide (please)
for my embrace
In the night
I love a chase
Tempt me no (tease)
Before we kiss
nice and slow
I live for these

Should I let you remember?
I can't resist
Gonna haunt you forever

You scream!
There's nobody to heal
Does it matter?
It's only you and me and all underneath
So scream!
Hell is waitin' for me
You're just shakter
Until you're really afraid

Underneath the setting sun
something wicced will one way come

Oh my
Just a dream
So to take you, shake you, make you scream

Try to see behind my eyes
destiny will be in night
Don't you know

you're what I need
Flash and grown
You'r gonna be...

Should I let you awake?
I can't resist
There's a run for a saking

You scream!
There's nobody to heal
Does it matter?
It's only you and me and all underneath
So scream!
Hell is waitin' for me
You're just shakter
Until you'r really afraid
You scream!
There's nobody to heal
Does it matter?
It's only you and me and all underneath
So scream!
Hell is waitin' for me
You're just shakter
Until you'r really afraid

Scream...
