

This Is Me

Monrose

When I'm lying on floor,
Starring at the door.
And tears are falling down.

(Don't think I came back in alone)

I'm lying here for days,
Soaking up the pay.
What tears are slowly drown.

(Don't think I came back in alone)

So I'm move my feet,
Of the ground,
Get myself in a show,
What you are.
I'm to strong to fan,
Strong to men.

Don't get twist in,
In a missing you take a look this is me.

And I rule not here in this of course.
You can keep me in control.
Tonight I'm starting again.

(Don't think I came back in alone)

No one will not be in this of course.
Not in right, like a star, of in control.
No you won't hurt me again.
(You won't hurt me again)

When I'm waiting out for life,
And I get fouls of since.
To wait to carry on.

(Don't think I came back in alone)

When the Sun in Seas goes half,
And hold this failing hard.
And all the love has gone.

(Don't think I came back in alone)

For the ground,
I was gone,
Don't worry I burn there for alone.
I'm stronger now,
Just strong to fall.

Don't get twist in,
In a missing you take a look this is me.

And I rule not here in this of course.
You can keep me in control.
Tonight I'm starting again.

(Don't think I came back in alone)

No one will not be in this of course.
Not in right, like a star, of in control.
No you won't hurt me again.
(You won't hurt me again)

(7x)
(Take a look)
I won't hurt.

This is me.

And I rule not here in this of course.
You can keep me in control.
Tonight I'm starting again.

(Don't think I came back in alone)

No one will not be in this of course.
Not in right, like a star, of in control.
No you won't hurt me again.
(You won't hurt me again)
