

Sworded Beast

Monster Truck

I track the dusty road, for clues given away, Lurk in the dark and cold, as I unsheathe it, In my chest there's a beating heart and a taste for the battlefield, The road goes forever I know I'll never back down from any foe, I'm unstoppable

Taste My steel, Feel my blade
Taste My steel, Feel my blade

Twisted wood and thorn, places to call my own, a trust that my sword provides, a safe passage, Home is where I lay my head, rest is an awful crutch roaming through the night, I'm the evil one, come to take your life, I'm unstoppable

Taste My steel, Feel my blade

Every town will fear my name, Every soul will fear my blade, Every duke, Every baron, Every lord, will live in fear of my misericorde, Dark will consume me, I move without sound, And there's a place far away where me and my blade won't be found YEAH!!!!
