

Final Cremation

Monstrosity

A dark envision [duh, it's a verb, not a noun!] surrounds the mind

Grasping for the souls of dead
The undead come trudging up
Engulfing evil in your head

A sacrilegious [misspelled as "sacreligious" in CD liner notes]
action burns

Inside

This chant of death now seeps
Through your eyes

A blackened charr ["char" is a verb, not a noun; "charr" is a kind of fish]

Enraptures blood

Awaking cries

Of unconscious souls

Petrified to arise

Sifting ashes

Of the funeral of life

To compel the final

Cremation of the skies [misspelled as "skys" in CD liner notes]

The fire burns through every corpse

Resurrected shell of death

Revitalized core of dust

Altered for the last of days

And propelled to liquidate

An unearthly sense dwells within my head

Drifting through the walls of time

The oracle of insanity

Must destroy this wasted ball of mass

Awaking cries

Of unconscious souls

Petrified to arise

Sifting ashes

Of the funeral of life

To compel the final

Cremation of the skies [misspelled as "skys" in CD liner notes]
