

Rise To Power

Monstrosity

Behold the seize of power Dark faction now prepared to strike
All opposition bleeds and cowers Legion of darkness shall dictate its will and rise to power

Denounce all gods and moral structures crushing to dust the bones of those who question
The power of our convictions
The world has never seen such horrors

Eviscerate all false believers Incinerate our social leaders Kill and rape those who seek the light on virgin blood we thrive

Remove the tongues of those who speak out Tear out the eyes nothing else is seen Cut the throats and let them bleed on human life we feed
Rise To Power
