

Last Night

Montell Jordan

[intro]
What time is it?
Oh, no
Oh, no

7 a.m. when reality sets in
See, last night we said and did some things
That we shouldn'ta did
I know the morning after's always harder
Than the night before, for sure
Now we're lying here
Trying to figure what we're suppose to do
We're both wondering if we're getting back together
Or I'm leaving you
We had one drink too many, one kiss too many
One "no don't you say another word" too many
And it led us to the morning after

Last night when the love was too strong
We couldn't fight it and you stayed
Just a little too long
So for now it's morning and yesterday's gone
But can we move on?

We ask ourselves "why oh why" a thousand times, yeah
And separately, silently in our heads
We rehearse the lines
I had a nice time (so did I)
I gotta go now (me too)
Hit my pager (certainly)
Call me later (most definitely)
And then we leave

Later on that day around six
I get a call from you
The slight tremble in your voice let me know
Something wasn't cool
And if I could turn bak the hands of time
I'd go back to yesterday before we lost our mind
To see if we'd do it all again

Last night when the love was too strong
We couldn't fight it and you stayed
Just a little too long
So for now it's morning and yesterday's gone
But can we move on?

Stay or leave, be strong or weak
Decisions, decisions
It all seems so easy
If I knew then what I know now
I'm sure that somehow we'd have no regrets

Last night when the love was too strong
We couldn't fight it and you stayed
Just a little too long
So for now it's morning and yesterday's gone

But can we move on?

Repeat 1 while:

See baby

Last night you just looked so damn good

Yes, you did

And I was a proud man, proud man

Yes I was

Last night when the love was too strong

We couldn't fight it and you stayed

Just a little too long

So for now it's morning and yesterday's gone

But can we move on?
