

Look Some More

Montgomery Gentry

A couple of acres
In the outskirts
A little fence then
A piece of red dirt

And The banker
had his pen out
He said sign here
I kind of freaked out

All this talking
About settling
Had this homeboy
Back peddling

So I pushed back
That contract
Got my car keys
And I hit the gas

I don't know what I'm looking for
So I guess I'll go and look some more

A couple girl back
I lost my head
With a hazeled
Hot brunette

Showed up with
Of all things
a little blue box
With a gold ring

So I raced down
In my pockets
Find my nerves
But I lost it

Couldn't trust me
With her rounds
So I put my heart
Back in lock down

So many choices
So hard to choose
I can't hold my horses
I got no time to lose

I don't know what I'm looking for
So I guess I'll go and take another long cruise home

So I guess I'll go and look some more

Take another good long look around
