

Erection In Progress

Montreal

I saw her at the beach she was lying next to me and she was wearing nothing - a good decision I agree I think it were her eyes and the way she moved her body that when she turned to me in my pants began a party

Diggin' in the sand I try to hide what had happened in my pants and in my head the only question: How to calm down my erection?

What's up with my erection?

To change my thoughts I was thinkin' of the book I read I thought that was a good idea to get the blood back in my head but the description of the hills remind' me of the girl ahead

And when she asked me to play games with her I felt my pants tu rn wet

Erection, erection, erection in progress
