

All of You Tonight

Monty Are I

This is babe,
Lets admit there is nothing in between us now
We can say what we need to say
Its impossible to turn back now,
There is nothing that can stop us now.
If it happens then its meant to be
I can guarantee, can you guarantee?

And we both know what is on our minds
Just give a little sign, ill give a little sign
Don't make me close my eyes,
Cuz I wanna see all of you tonight.

This is it babe.
Ill admit maybe we should just surrender now.
We cant turn back the clock,
And trick another minute.
So lets savor all we have somehow
I wanna show you, will you show me how
If it happens then its meant to be,
I can guarantee can you guarantee

And we both know what is on our minds
Just give a little sign ill give a little sign,
Don't make me close my eyes,
Cuz I wanna see all of you tonight.

Here with you,
I come into a world that is so innocent
And new I'll take with me this memory
Don't make me close my eyes
Cause I wanna see all of you tonight
