

Sandcastles
A storehouse full of toys
A fit of laughter in the air
How can I make you happy
Maybe with chocolate flakes
Or a dog with a wagging tail called
Mr. Bo or Jungle
You decide
You decide

To your delight
Let's go into the zoo
And watch the walrus dance
Caress the billy goats

Crumble topping cake
And the windmills turn
So let's fly a kite
You decide
You decide

Inner life
Protected with all my love
A smile is enough to know
That I made you happy

You have so much to give
Ooh, I take you in my arms
I'm quite raptured by the charms
Of children's eyes

Sandcastles
A storehouse full of toys
A fit of laughter in the air
How can I make you happy

Maybe with chocolate flakes
Or a dog with a wagging tail called
Mr. Bo or Jungle
You decide
You decide
