

Vanished

Moonlight Agony

Now I am finally there this is the moment of truth Blood from their veins on my arms taste of their fear in my mouth

All preparations are done conversion is ready to start

This is the time when the fruits of my work will reveal themselves where are you, child of mine?

Why is the world still the same Nothing, yet something has changed
I'm human of flesh and of bones
A god am I not, just a man

Have I been fooled to believe I had powers beyond my reach, it cannot be that way.

The night has transformed into day awareness ascending to life
The darkness is fading away
The shadows are falling behind me

CHORUS:
Vanished is my dark companion
I'm free from his will and imprisonment
gone now is my shallow sanity
vanished half my soul

Vanished is my dark companion
I'm free from his will and imprisonment
gone now is my shallow sanity
vanished half my soul

All was in vain, all was air
A fiction, but real in my mind
What monster have lived inside me?
How could I let this beast come loose.

How can I repay the victims that suffered my lunacy, please tell me how shall I?

Is there a price for all crimes?
A sentence for every sin?
I see only one path ahead from ashes and into the fire

CHORUS:
Vanished is my dark companion
I'm free from his will and imprisonment
gone now is my shallow sanity
vanished half my soul

Nothing can ever redeem my deeds
There is no way for absolution
Only one way to reach peace of mind Vanished is my soul
